

REVIEW: Don has a unique sense of humor, he loved to mess with your mind while working his sales pitch. He is a true image of Texas, tall cowboy with charm and mischievous personality that endears him and his quirky ways. He was wonderful to work with very attentive to details and called regularly to keep us informed of status. He was always cheerful and excited to hear from us.